

A brown wooden marker sign with a yellow border and a yellow post. The sign is shaped like a cross with a rectangular center. It is mounted on a yellow post. The text is in yellow, sans-serif, all-caps letters. The background shows a rustic wooden building with a porch and a railing, surrounded by trees.

WOODCHUCK LODGE
NATURE WRITER JOHN BURROUGHS
SPENT SUMMERS FROM 1910-20
IN THIS 1860S FARMHOUSE.
FAMOUS VISITORS INCLUDED
HENRY FORD AND THOMAS EDISON.

NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES