

This topographic map depicts the Roseboom Hill area in Alaska, characterized by its rugged terrain and numerous land parcels. The map is overlaid with a coordinate grid, with longitude values ranging from -74.83 to -74.77 and latitude values from 42.72 to 42.74. A scale bar in the bottom left corner indicates a distance of 1 mile, with a 0.5-mile increment marked. An inset map in the top left corner shows the location of the study area within the state of Alaska.

The map features several roads, including Roseboom Hill Road, Ludman Road, Weigel Road, Darling Road, Boyd Road, Putman Road, Hubble Hollow Road, and Roscoe Jones Road. A pink line highlights a trail that runs along the eastern slope of Roseboom Hill. Key landmarks include the 'Metal Gate' and 'Pot Hole Dam'. Land parcels are labeled with owner names, such as Jorgensen, Robert M Jr, Spellman, R M Jr Trust, and Adams, II, Charles Thomas. The map also shows various geographical features, including contour lines indicating elevation and several small water bodies.
